

THE MAN WHO SHOT A LAWYER IN THE BUTTOCK

a convict's story in words and music with

James Benedict as John Grant

and

Elizabeth Anderson harpsichord

Ron Nagorcka didjeridu and synthesiser

Frustrated in love, John Grant shot a London lawyer in the buttock, and was sentenced to death at the Old Bailey. Granted a reprieve, he sailed for New South Wales on the 5th December 1803, bringing with him the first harpsichord ever to arrive on these shores ...

as seen at the Old Bailey, City of London Festival

Old Magistrate's Court

corner of Russell and LaTrobe Streets

Melbourne CBD

December 2, 5 & 6 at 8.00 pm

To commemorate the 200th Anniversary of John Grant's journey to New South Wales, these performances will alternate readings from Grant's diary with music from his library (Bach, Handel, Scarlatti, Paradies, Mozart) as well as a new work for harpsichord, didjeridu and Australian bush sounds by Ron Nagorcka*

* with assistance from the Federal Government through the Australia Council, its arts funding and advisory body

Tickets $30 / $20 (concession)

Credit card bookings: Move records, 9497 3105 (BH)

Enquiries and other bookings: 9387 3004 new from Elizabeth Anderson

The Convict Harpsichordist

(MD 3242)

CD / CD-ROM out now from

Move Records

